

West of England Genomic Medicine Centre (WE GMC)

Annual Conference - Programme – Monday, 29th October 2018

Education Centre | Upper Maudlin Street| University Hospitals Bristol | BS2 8AE

1:45pm	Registration
100,000 Genomes Project – What have we achieved and what next?
2:00pm	The 100,000 Genomes Project – what have we achieved	Professor Andrew Mumford
2:20pm	Return of results pathways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What does this mean for RD patients? - What does this mean for cancer patients? 	Professor Ruth Newbury-Ecob & Mr James Bristol
2:50pm	Patient experiences – what has the impact been to date	TBC
Mainstreaming Whole Genome Sequencing into Standard Clinical Practice: Considerations for Future Planning
3:05pm	Evolution to a future Genomic Medicine Service – the vision	TBC
3:25pm	How to access genetic and genomic testing in the Genomic Medicine Service <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Demonstration of National Genomic Information System (NGIS) - Consideration for informed consent in genomics - Update on laboratory processes and pathways - Education and training opportunities in genomics 	Core Team: Above speakers and Catherine Carpenter- Clawson, Aileen McLoughlin, Amanda Pichini, Maggie Williams, Melanie Watson
4:05pm	Summing up and thanks
4:10pm to 5:00pm	Please stay to enjoy tea and cake with the core WE GMC team and discuss how to implement the future genomic medicine service in your area The WE GMC team and colleagues will be available to answer your queries on the topics covered above. Information stands will be available to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Review return of results pathways - Demonstrate NGIS - Explore consent conversations - Discuss any education and training needs - Understand laboratory pathways

Click here to Sign up for WE GMC Annual Event - 29th October2018